

The Great Books Program annual banquet, Spring 2019

In the fall of 2020, Pepperdine University will launch a Great Books Minor. This minor consists of 19–20 credits, and requires the completion of the following:

- GSHU 123 Great Books III
- GSHU 324 Great Books IV
- GSHU 333 Asian Great Books
- GSHU 450 Special Topics
- One three- or four-credit elective

Note that GSHU 123 and 324 count for both the minor and your GE requirement. GSHU 333 counts for the minor and the World Civilization GE requirement. Therefore, the minor only requires two additional courses (GSHU 450 and the elective) beyond the GE already covered by the Great Books Colloquium.

Choose the elective course from the following options:

- ASIA 325 Pre-Modern Japanese Literature (4 credits)
- ASIA 345 Modern Chinese Literature (4)
- ASIA 350 Buddhist Texts, Images, and Practices (4)
- ASIA 370 Modern Japanese Literature (4)
- ENG 431 Early American Literature (3)
- ENG 432 Nineteenth-century American Literature (3)
- ENG 437 Modern American Literature (3)
- ENG 440 American Multicultural Literature (3)
- ENG 451 Medieval British Literature (3)
- ENG 455 Renaissance & Seventeenth-century British Literature (3)
- ENG 456 Shakespeare (3)
- ENG 461 Enlightenment and Romantic British Literature (3)
- ENG 465 British Victorian Literature (3)
- ENG 468 Modern British Literature (3)
- ENG 475 Contemporary Literature of Global Diversity (3)
- FRE 356 Major French Authors (4)
- FRE 440 Francophone Texts (4)
- FRE 450 French Texts (4)
- ITAL 450 Masterpieces of Italian Literature (4)
- ITAL 451 Contemporary Italian Literature (4)
- PHIL 300 Ancient Philosophy (4)
- PHIL 310 Modern Philosophy (4)
- POSC 311 Foundation of Political Theory (4)
- POSC 311 Modern Asian Political Philosophy (4)
- SPAN 440 Latin American Texts (4)
- SPAN 450 Spanish Texts (4)

New Great Books Minor