RESPONDING TO GOD'S LOVE: COMPASSIONATE SERVICE

(ML 25:32-45)
Ah, but how to give oneself away? How do we discover what our particular way of self-giving, our vocation, is? Or, put another way, how do we discern the will of God for our own lives? Before attempting to answer this question, there is a point of importance to consider. The will of God is not the will of some other person out there somewhere. It is not the will of some distant God, who is remote and unknowable. The will of God is the will of God as it is known to us, the will of God as it is known to us personally. The will of God is the will of God as it is known to us, the will of God as it is known to us personally. The will of God is the will of God as it is known to us, the will of God as it is known to us personally. The will of God is the will of God as it is known to us, the will of God as it is known to us personally. The will of God is the will of God as it is known to us, the will of God as it is known to us personally. The will of God is the will of God as it is known to us, the will of God as it is known to us personally. The will of God is the will of God as it is known to us, the will of God as it is known to us personally. The will of God is the will of God as it is known to us, the will of God as it is known to us personally. The will of God is the will of God as it is known to us, the will of God as it is known to us personally. The will of God is the will of God as it is known to us, the will of God as it is known to us personally. The will of God is the will of God as it is known to us, the will of God as it is known to us personally.

sometimes wrong judgments. We are the people who struggle with God until we are willing to submit to His will in our own lives. We are not always perfect, and we are often wrong, but we try to do the best we can. In our weakness and our sin, we need God to help us. We need His guidance and His love to guide us. In our weakness and our sin, we need God to help us. We need His guidance and His love to guide us.

To submit our wills to His will in our own lives, we need to be willing to let God be in control. We need to trust in His love and His mercy, and we need to be willing to let Him guide us. We need to be willing to let Him be in control, and we need to trust in His love and His mercy. We need to be willing to let Him guide us, and we need to be willing to let Him be in control. We need to trust in His love and His mercy, and we need to be willing to let Him guide us.

As we let God be in control of our lives, we need to be willing to let Him guide us. We need to be willing to let Him be in control, and we need to trust in His love and His mercy. We need to be willing to let Him guide us, and we need to be willing to let Him be in control. We need to trust in His love and His mercy, and we need to be willing to let Him guide us.

As we let God be in control of our lives, we need to be willing to let Him guide us. We need to be willing to let Him be in control, and we need to trust in His love and His mercy. We need to be willing to let Him guide us, and we need to be willing to let Him be in control. We need to trust in His love and His mercy, and we need to be willing to let Him guide us.

As we let God be in control of our lives, we need to be willing to let Him guide us. We need to be willing to let Him be in control, and we need to trust in His love and His mercy. We need to be willing to let Him guide us, and we need to be willing to let Him be in control. We need to trust in His love and His mercy, and we need to be willing to let Him guide us.

As we let God be in control of our lives, we need to be willing to let Him guide us. We need to be willing to let Him be in control, and we need to trust in His love and His mercy. We need to be willing to let Him guide us, and we need to be willing to let Him be in control. We need to trust in His love and His mercy, and we need to be willing to let Him guide us.

As we let God be in control of our lives, we need to be willing to let Him guide us. We need to be willing to let Him be in control, and we need to trust in His love and His mercy. We need to be willing to let Him guide us, and we need to be willing to let Him be in control. We need to trust in His love and His mercy, and we need to be willing to let Him guide us.
Student responses to Chapter 4 with Michael Himes (10/2) Sarah Keyes

Responses to Chapter 4

"When you discover that you cannot "believe in God. This is a very important way of looking at faith. It is not a question of whether we believe in God, but a question of whether we are able to accept the idea of a higher power that is beyond our understanding."

Michael Prior, "The Art of Flame"

"While we recognize that our experiences are shaped by our beliefs, it is important to keep in mind that these experiences can be influenced by other factors such as culture, upbringing, and personal experiences."

A group of four senior British students met to discuss their reactions and interpretations of the book. They shared their thoughts and insights, and concluded that the book raised important questions about the nature of faith and the role of reason in religious belief.

"We must be willing to question our own beliefs and be open to new perspectives. Just because something has been accepted as true for centuries does not mean it is necessarily true today."

"When we face challenges or obstacles, we must remember that we are not alone. We can turn to God for guidance and support, and He will be there for us."

"The most important thing we can do is to remain true to ourselves and our beliefs, even when it is difficult. We must be willing to stand up for what we believe in, even if it means going against the crowd."

"When we face difficult situations, we must remember that God is always with us. He will provide us with strength and guidance to help us through these times."

"We end up with a bruised hip, and it is a beautiful moment when we reflect on how much we have grown and learned from these experiences."

"Let us continue to seek understanding and wisdom, and be open to new possibilities and opportunities."
